MEET the MAESTRO LIVE!
OCT 22 at 7 PM
OCT 25 at 3 PM

Appearing on FACEBOOK LIVE - This is your chance to meet Maestro Daniel Stevens, hear him perform a short concert piece, and then spend the rest of the hour asking questions about the podium, the production, or the family pet! Connect to the SSO Facebook page at www.facebook.com/shoalssymphony or join our email list to receive a direct link: shoalssymphony.org

LIVING ROOM CONCERTS

Free and open to the public, we invite you to grab a snack, find a comfy seat on the couch at home, and pull up the Shoals Symphony Orchestra YouTube Channel to hear all three fantastic socially-distant Fall concerts. In place of a concert ticket, we will ask you for a comparable donation in support of all of our terrific musicians. Join our email list to receive a direct link to the exciting concerts live in your living room: shoalssymphony.org.

SHOALS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA at UNA

2020-2021 SEASON
shoalssymphony.org

The Shoals Symphony Orchestra at UNA is a partnership organization between the Shoals Symphony Orchestra Board of Directors - 501(c)3 and the University of North Alabama. The Shoals Symphony Orchestra at UNA is funded by the generosity of individual and corporate sponsors, contributions by alumni and friends, grants, and ticket sales. The Shoals Symphony Orchestra encompasses the perfect balance of UNA faculty and rising students (majors and non-majors), as well as regional professional musicians. Dedicated, enthusiastic musicians are selected by competitive audition. Every college student in the Shoals Symphony Orchestra at UNA receives a performance award to help pay tuition. The Board of Directors are dedicated to encouraging area students through the development of the UNA Honor Orchestra (9-12 grades) and the UNA String Project (all ages). The Shoals Symphony Orchestra at UNA began as a group of local players wanting to make music together. It has grown and evolved into a professional regional orchestra and is recognized as such by the Alabama State Council on the Arts, the Alabama Tourism Department, and the League of American Orchestras. We invite you to enjoy this year's performances as we welcome Dr. Daniel Stevens to the podium for the Symphony's 38th season.

Daniel Stevens serves at the University of North Alabama as Professor of Music, Conductor of the Shoals Symphony Orchestra, and Director of the Peery Center for Orchestral Studies. His roles include conductor and artistic director of the Shoals Symphony Orchestra and teacher of applied viola.

As a conductor, Dr. Stevens has been the guest clinician/adjudicator for the TPSMEA Texas All-State Orchestra, the Kansas Music Educators Association Large Ensemble and Solo & Ensemble contests, the Northeast Oklahoma All-District Honors Orchestra, and the Tulsa Metro Honors Orchestra. He was previously on the faculty of Southwestern College (Winfield, KS) for eight years as the Mazie Barnet Kilmer Chair for String Education and conductor of the South Kansas Symphony.

As a professional musician, Dr. Stevens had a 15-year tenure as violist with the Tulsa Symphony Orchestra and has played with the Alabama Symphony Orchestra, Huntsville Symphony Orchestra, Wichita Grand Opera, Tulsa Philharmonic, Tulsa Opera Orchestra, Canton Symphony Orchestra, and Akron Symphony Orchestra. He has held esteemed positions in the Aspen Music Festival Orchestra, the Wintergreen Music Festival Orchestra, and the Colorado Springs Music Festival Orchestra. He has been a feature chamber musician in the Ameropa International Chamber Music Festival in Prague, Czech Republic. In March 2010, he performed in Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall through Distinguished Concerts International, New York.
